

Where-as it appears to the Weakley County Quarterly Court, this day assembled in regular session at the courthouse, in the town of Dresden, Weakley County, Tennessee, on this the 7th day of April, 1947, there being present and presiding the Honorable Cayce Pentecost, County Judge, Shobe Smith, Jr., County Court Clerk and Jess Davis, Sheriff, also a quorum of the members of the Weakley County Quarterly Court being present, that the Sharon High School, Sharon, Weakley County, Tennessee, is now and has been for several years admitting to their school and providing all and such means as are necessary for the full completion of the regular high school course to many high school students that live outside of the Sharon, Special School District, and

Where-as, it appears that these students have been admitted to the Sharon High school, where they have received the same consideration, advantages and opportunities as the students living within the bounds of the Sharon School District, and without any extra expense to Weakley County, Tennessee, and

Where-as, it further appears to the Weakley County Quarterly Court, that the Sharon High School does not have, nor has it ever had a gymnasium, which building is now necessary and required under our present school laws in order that county high schools may be properly rated and their graduates enter higher institutions of learning;

There-fore Be It Resolved, that the Weakley County Quarterly Court, borrow a sum of money, not exceeding $40,000.00, payable within the next five years, and at a rate of interest not exceeding one and one half percent. Said sum of money to be borrowed on the faith and credit of Weakley County, Tennessee, and the County Judge, the County Court Clerk and the Trustee, are hereby authorized to negotiate said loan, sign any note or voucher for the borrowing of said money that will protect the rights and interests of Weakley County, Tennessee, and guarantee the full payment of said loan together with interest, and costs of Collection of such notes. All monies when borrowed shall be deposited in the County General Fund with the Trustee and such sums are hereby appropriated and ordered paid to the Sharon High School for the purpose of building and erecting a new and modern high school gymnasium.

This Resolution presented by Esquire C. C. Underwood who made a motion that it be adopted, and was seconded by Esquire Aaron Campbell. The roll was called and 46 magistrates were recorded as voting for the resolution and none against the resolution, whereupon it was declared Adopted unanimous.
